

Chairman Powell: I urge you strongly to delay the vote on media consolidation in order to allow for a much broader public debate about the consequences of this rule change.